Bouwens bags first monthly King title in 2006

John Bouwens handily defeated 16 year old Keith Guerrero 180-137 in the June finals of the Budweiser King of the Lanes to earn his spot in the Grand Finale. 6th seeded Bouwens never trailed the final match minimizing his errors against the second seed on the tough 33' short oil pattern. Bouwens earned his trip to the final match by defeating top seed Eric Roberto 233-196 while Guerrero beat out Naval Station's Kevin Christianson 218-181 in the other semi-final match.

Bouwens other matches included wins over 5th seed Bill Parkinson 155-152 and 7th seed Zaldy Ponce 190-180, while 9th seed Christianson earned wins over 3rd seed Brian Manibusan 199-170 and 4th seed Buddy Saludo 171-142.

Roberto used a 278 four game to soar ahead of the pack after trailing for most of the qualifying period finishing with a 1155 six game total (192 average) followed by Guerrero's 1140, Manibusan 1125, Saludo 1097, Parkinson 1079, Bouwens 1075, Ponce, 1047, Jesse Eyoel 994, Christianson 966 and Virgil Toledo's 962 rounds off the top ten.

With the win, Bouwens joins defending champion Joey Miranda III, two-time monthly King of the Lanes Manny Tagle, youth bowlers Keith Guerrero and RJ Santos along with Jesse Eyoel as finalists for the year end finals and a chance at the first place prize of $1,000.00.

The next Budweiser King of the Lanes will be held on Sunday, July 9, 2006 at 11:00 a.m.

Sagun retains Prince Crown

Albert Sagun was again declared as the Budweiser Prince of the Lanes narrowly defeating 10th seed Chris Santos 161+22 to 132+48 in the monthly finals of the event. Sagun capitalized on three error frames by Santos who failed to convert on the 8th, 9th and fill frame to snatch the win, 183-180. With Sagun's repeat win, an additional spot has open for the end of the year finals of which bowlers will continue to compete until the end of the year.

In other Prince of the Lanes matches, top seed Eddie Esteban bowed out to Santos 144-188 while 4th seed Conrado Bascos succumbed to the second seed Sagun 229-184 in the semi-final round.

Esteban led the six game qualifier with a 1190 total including handicap followed by Sagun 1185, Edgar Caper 1148, Bascos 1145, Clyde Santos 1145, Chris Love 1143, Tony Quitugua 1129, Rosen Miguel 1115, Art Acosta 1100 and Santos 1086 rounded off the top ten.

The next Prince of the Lanes will be held on Sunday, July 9, 2006 at 11:00 a.m.

Guam Bowlers Senior Golden Club held their Annual Family Celebration on Sunday, June 25, 2006 at the Tutujan Triangle Park in Agaña Heights. The activity was coordinated by the Social Events Committee chaired by Mrs. Toni Sablan. Family and Friends of the organization gathered for the luncheon, music and raffle prizes. The grand prize was won by Pete Charfarous.
