

New Budweiser King, Prince crowned

NEW FACES took center stage during the monthly hosting of the Budweiser King and Prince of the Lanes held last Sunday, May 28, 2006 at the Central Lanes Bowling Center.

Second seed Jesse Eyoel took advantage of early errors by Brent Tibbatts to win his first ever monthly championship with a 175-148 victory while Albert Sagun's string of strikes erased a 27 pin handicap advantage from challenger Luke Calip with a 232-174 match to win by a comfortable 31 pin margin and claim his first Prince monthly title.

After crushing top seed James Gumabon in the semi-finals (257-215), Tibbatts was unable to recover from four early mishaps in the title game falling behind by 42 pins midway through the set which allowed Eyoel to cruise to victory. In the other semi-final round, Eyoel easily advanced to the finals by dispatching Duane Camacho (227-148).

Gumabon led all bowlers in the six game qualifier with a 1280 total (213 average) followed by Eyoel (1,241), Camacho (1,232), Bill Parkinson and Rey Zailcita (1,192), Art Gatmen (1,174), Keith Guerrero (1,171), Darryl Dimla (1,170), with Dante Godoy and Brent Tibbatts rounding off the top ten qualifiers with identical 1,163 totals.

In the Prince of the Lanes, Sagun used a six bagger to easily trim the handicap advantage held by Calip and convincingly win with a total score of 254-223 including handicap. In the semi-final matches, top seed Ryan Batac bowed out to Calip 221-265 (176-216) while second seed Sagun outclassed Senior bowler Clyde Santos 218-162 (196-146).

Batac led all Prince bowlers in the qualifying rounds with a 1,328 total including a 270 handicap followed by Sagun's 1,310 total (132 handicap), Chris Love 1,262 (282), Timothy Nauta 1,262 (174), Rick Torres 1,246 (96), Noel Ponseca 1,239 (96), Luke Calip 1,239 (294), Vince Santiago 1,218 (324), Clyde Santos 1,197 (96), and Romy Arias 1,193 (72).

The next Budweiser King and Prince of the Lanes will be held this Sunday, June 11, 2006, 11:00 a.m. at the Central Lanes Bowling Center.

Starting a league of their own

THE GUAM INTERSCHOLASTIC Federation took the first step in establishing a Middle School bowling league. Students from Oceanview Middle School and Jose LG Rios Middle School were represented during the first of the three-day tournament with sixteen competitors last May 20 at Central Lanes.

Each member will bowl a total of six games over the three-day event. The top five finishers from each school will be added to establish the total team points.

Oceanview Middle School leads after the first day of competition by nine pins over Jose LG Rios Middle School. Oceanview's top five bowlers include Adam Aquino (285), Jan Jason Flores (197), Lance Lujan (193), Leann Meeks (189) and Jonathan Kanamoto (155). Jose LG Rios' is led by James Fernandez (274), Zayne Zamora (251), Jonah Au (180), Kelly Harper (155) and Khristopher Harper (150).

Team Showtyme dominates Budweiser Wednesday Night Mixed League

HIGHER TEAM SEEDS going into the final position round did not prevail as the lower seeds upended them during the final day of competition last May 31. Team Showtyme, which includes Rick Mesa, Charlie Catbagan, Keith Guerrero, Darryl Dimla, Bruce Calip, John Tenorio and Edgar Nalundasan won all four games against the top seed team, Jim's Gang, whose roster includes Ed Cadag, Abel Invencion, Ike San Agustin, Jesse Eyoel, Jim Pinaula and Charles Pinalua. Team Showtyme claimed the championship along with the first place cash prize of $1,200 while Jim's Gang had to contend with a second place finish and $700. Meanwhile, the battle for third place was also won by the lower seed as team Still Thinking managed to win only one of four games against Shoot 'em Down.

With the 3-1 win, the team consisting of Fred Cruz, JD Castro, Jay Leon Guerrero, David Rivera, Louie Montinolla and Frank Russo claimed third place and the purse of $600 while Still Thinking's team of Kin Sablan, Bernie Banico, Chris Leal, Derek Crisostomo, Rosen Miguel and Aaron Elliott dropped to fourth and received $500.

High Average for the Men's division went to Keith Guerrero with a 220 while Women's High Average was awarded to Shellee Javier with a 184. Two perfect games were bowled in the league during the season by Alan Vitug and Bernie Banico while the highest series was held by Brian Manibusan with an 814.
